

Sexual Assault Awareness Month

Bring Strength and Hope to others by sharing your story of how sexual assault impacted your life. Sexual assault can be very tragic. Knowing that there is light after the darkness can inspire others to continue on their journey and not give up.

Submit a one to two-page essay on how you survived and where you are now in your recovery process. Individuals who have offered support to anyone impacted by sexual assault may share stories of how they helped others in crisis. Bay Area Turning Point, Inc. will share one story each day in April via the agency's Facebook and Twitter.

Guidelines for submitting your story:

- No more than 2 pages typed in 12 point font
- You may use an alias or remain anonymous
- Respect other's anonymity
- Refrain from using inappropriate language
- Share your accomplishments after the crisis no matter how large or small

By submitting your story you grant Bay Area Turning Point permission to post the story on the agency's webpage and any social media, so that it may be shared with the community

*Submit your Story of Hope by email, fax, or walk-in
